Genealogical Society present

Second Saturday Family-History Workshop

"Genealogy Basics Parts 1 and 2"

Saturday, April 11, 2009

10:30 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.

Thomas D. Clark Center for Kentucky History

Get suggestions from genealogist and publisher Sandi Gorin about how to start the process of researching and documenting family history. The morning presentation will describe proper techniques for basic research, while the afternoon session will offer information on resources, repositories, and helpful tips.

Registration before noon on Friday, April 10, is required. Workshop participation is complimentary. A light lunch is available for registrants only from 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. for $6, payable at the door. For more information or to register, call 502-564-1792, ext. 4460, or email refdesk@ky.gov.

Presentation by KTIG

Following the close of each family-history workshop, the Kentucky Technology in Genealogy Users Group (KTIG) offers a free program to help support family-history researchers' use and understanding of technology as it applies to genealogy. All interested persons are invited to participate in the monthly program at 1:45 p.m.
